

WILLPOWER, COMMITMENT, TEAMWORK

Zinedine Zidane has always set himself ambitious goals which, at the time, seemed unrealistic. However, one World Cup, one Golden Ball award and one European championship later, he has reached his goals thanks to his willpower, commitment and sense of teamwork.

Lifting 1.4 billion people from extreme poverty by 2015 and assuring each and everyone access to education and health are the new challenges that Zinedine intends to take up by encouraging governments and citizens to achieve the 8 Millennium Development Goals.

As a UNDP Goodwill Ambassador, Zinedine Zidane encourages you to join his team and take action against poverty now.

The Millennium Development Goals were adopted in 2000 and are to be achieved by 2015 :

1. Eradicate extreme hunger and poverty
2. Achieve universal primary education
3. Promote gender equality and empower women
4. Reduce child mortality
5. Improve maternal health
6. Combat HIV/AIDS, malaria and other diseases
7. Ensure environmental sustainability
8. Develop a global partnership for development
